Stomp to the swamp. Rainbow challenge – ask your grown up to buy you some cotton buds over the weekend, if you haven't already got some. We're going to make dinosaur skeletons!!
Session 2 General	Make a dinosaur den in your house where you think the dinosaurs would like to live. When you next go on a walk, collect things to make a dinosaur world for toy dinosaurs. Put them on a tray when you get back to make somewhere for your toy dinosaurs to live.	Use your paper plate to make 1 or 2 dinosaurs, like the picture. Or can you think of a way to change your paper plate into a dinosaur.	Read Tyrannosaurus Ellie and then have a go at making a dinosaur like Ellie did. OR make a dinosaur poster and make up your very own dinosaur and draw him.	Do the shape sheet together for ideas and then collect different shaped objects from around your house. Either build a dinosaur with the shapes or draw round the shapes to make a dinosaur.	Play Stomp to Swamp game. Hide the dinosaur eggs in the house or garden. Find the eggs and order them when you have found them all.
Session 3 Phonics	Use your laminated dinosaur. Watch your adult write a sound on it and you have a go at writing the same sound or saying the sound.	Use the big dinosaur picture and cut the little dinosaurs off the bottom. Do you know the names of the dinosaurs? The clue is the sound that is written next to the dinosaur. Match the little dinosaur with one on the big picture.	Use your laminated dinosaur and speech bubble. Dinosaurs are really good at making sounds. Adult write a sound on the speech bubble and child say which sound the dinosaur is making (in your best dinosaur voice)	Sound Dinosaur likes to eat sounds. Fill your sound dinosaur with as many sounds as you can think of, just like he's eaten them.	Use one of the dinosaurs that you have made this week and your sound line. Listen to the sound that the grown up makes and put your dinosaur next to that sound. Then swap over. Child say the sound for the adult.
